Report on Teej Festival on 30/07/2022

Teej, a traditional Hindu festival celebrated predominantly by women, marks the onset of the monsoon season and the union of Goddess Parvati with Lord Shiva. It holds significant cultural importance in various regions of India and Nepal, with elaborate festivities and rituals.

Our college organized a Teej celebration event, aiming to foster cultural exchange and celebrate the spirit of unity among students. The event featured a colorful array of activities, including traditional music and dance performances, mehendi (henna) application, and a fashion show showcasing vibrant ethnic attire.

The event provided an opportunity for students to showcase their creativity and elegance by donning traditional attire. A fashion show highlighted the diversity of ethnic wear, ranging from intricately embroidered sarees to vibrant lehengas, captivating the audience with their grace and charm.

Mehendi adorned with intricate designs attracted students eager to adorn their hands with traditional motifs, enhancing the festive ambiance. Additionally, cultural exhibits showcasing Teej rituals and customs provided insights into the significance of the festival and its cultural importance.

The culinary aspect of the celebration featured an array of traditional sweets and savory delights, allowing students to indulge in the flavors of Teej festivities. From mouthwatering sweets like ghewar and malpua to savory snacks like samosas and pakoras, the culinary offerings added a delightful touch to the event.

Report on Independence day on 15/08/2022

On August 15, 2022, SSG Pareek PG College, Jaipur celebrated India's 76th Independence Day, where students, faculty, and staff members paid tribute to the nation and freedom fighters of India. It is a remarkable day when we honor and respect all our freedom fighters who fought for India's freedom.

The celebrations started with flag hoisting by Ghanshyam Tiwari, Member of Parliament and dignitaries, followed by the National Anthem and a parade by NCC students. The chief guest of the event delivered an inspiring speech. The program continued with the chief guest being honored in a traditional welcome style, distributing medals and certificates to NCC students and cultural programs.

Following the flag hoisting, students and faculty organized a variety of cultural programs that highlighted the diversity and unity of India. Performances included patriotic songs, dance performances, skits, and recitations that reflected the sacrifice and struggle of our freedom fighters. The cultural programs aimed to evoke a sense of patriotism and pride in the hearts of everyone present.

Prof. N M Sharma, principal of the college delivered speeches and talks emphasizing the significance of Independence Day. They spoke about the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters, the progress India has achieved since independence, and the responsibility of each citizen in nation-building.

The Independence Day celebration at SSG Pareek P.G. College was a resounding success, fostering a sense of patriotism, unity, and pride among the college community. The event served as a reminder of the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters and the responsibility each citizen carries in upholding the values of a free and democratic India. The college remains committed to organizing such events to instill a sense of national pride and promote the holistic development of its students. The programme was concluded with national anthem.

Report on Fresher's party on 08/10/2022

The Fresher's Party held at SSG Pareek PG College, Jaipur was celebrated dated on 8th October 2022. The air buzzed with excitement as the college campus transformed into a kaleidoscope of colors, laughter, and vibrant energy. It was that time of the year when the fresher's were welcomed into the college fraternity with open arms at the much-anticipated fresher's party.

The celebration started at sharp 9.30 am at the SSG pareek college stage by our anchor with the warm welcome of all the dignitaries and the jury present in the function. Senior students, the architects of this memorable night, played the role of mentors, guiding the newcomers through the initial jitters with warmth and encouragement.

The programme started with lamp lightening and inaugural speech by respected principal Prof. N M Sharma and followed by the presidents speech for freshers. The programe was hosted by senior students.

Report on Dandiya Celebration on 30/10/2022

Dandiya celebrations are traditional events held during the Hindu festival of Navratri, which typically occurs in the months of September or October. During Navratri, people gather to worship the Hindu goddess Durga and participate in cultural festivities, including Dandiya and Garba dances.

Dandiya is a traditional folk dance originating from the Indian state of Gujarat. It involves dancers moving in a circular formation, holding sticks called "dandiyas" and striking them in rhythm with the music. The dance is often accompanied by energetic music and colorful attire, creating a lively and joyful atmosphere.

Participants of all ages join in the festivities, wearing vibrant traditional attire such as chaniya cholis for women and kedias for men.

The campus of S.S.G.Pareek PG College was transformed into a colorful spectacle as students came together to celebrate the joyous festival of Navratri with a lively Dandiya Night. The event aimed to promote cultural exchange and community bonding among students.

Students arrived in their finest traditional attire, with vibrant chaniya cholis, kedias, and turbans adding to the festive spirit. The dance floor buzzed with excitement as participants of all backgrounds came together to celebrate the cultural diversity of the college. Delicious snacks and refreshments were available, offering a taste of traditional Indian cuisine to attendees. From mouth-watering samosas and chaat to refreshing drinks like lassi and masala chai, there was something to satisfy every craving.

Report on Lohri Celebration on 13/01/2023

The Lohri celebration at our college was a vibrant and joyous event, filled with cultural performances, traditional music, and delicious food. The event commenced in the evening with the lighting of the bonfire, around which students, faculty, and staff gathered to celebrate the harvest festival.

The celebration began with the traditional lighting of the bonfire. Principal Prof. N.M. Sharma, Vice principal Dr. Anju Pareek, Girls college principal Dr. Vijaylaxmi Pareek and B.Ed college principal Dr. Pramila Dubey. Students and faculties gathered around the bonfire, singing traditional Lohri songs and performing folk dances. Sweets like Revdi, til and groundnuts were distributed among all students and faculties.

Various cultural performances were organized by students, showcasing the rich heritage of Punjab. These performances included Bhangra, Giddha, and other traditional dances, which added to the festive atmosphere.

Music performances featuring traditional instruments such as dhol, tumbi, and flute entertained the audience throughout the evening. The rhythmic beats of the dhol infused energy into the celebration.

The Lohri celebration provided an opportunity for students, faculty, and staff to come together and celebrate as a community. It fostered a sense of unity and belonging among the participants, strengthening the bond within the college.

The Lohri celebration at our college was a resounding success, filled with warmth, joy, and cultural fervor. It brought together people from diverse backgrounds to celebrate the spirit of unity, happiness, and prosperity. The event not only upheld tradition but also promoted cultural exchange and harmony within the college community.

Report on Republic day on 26/01/2023

As part of the Azaadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, the Students and faculties of SSG Pareek P.G. College, Jaipur organized the 73rd Republic Day on 26 January 2023 from 9.30 a.m. onwards. Chief guest of programme was Prof. Dev Swaroop, former Vice-Chancellor of Bhimaraov Ambedkar law University, Jaipur. The event was anchored by Shweta Sharma who introduced the meaning and importance of Republic Day, especially it being the 73rd Republic Day of India. It began with the National Anthem followed by the address of Prof. N M Sharma Principal, SSG Pareek P.G. College whose words of wisdom resounded with the students encouraging them to follow a virtuous path. Then there was a beautiful collaboration by students of Music Department as they performed on various patriotic songs. The Open Mic Society informed the audience regarding Constitutional Morality, read their self written poem, sang a beautiful song and showed their artwork. Dance performance entertained the audience with traditional and modern songs. Through a very informative speech delivered by Secretary, Shree L K Pareek of college alerted everyone about the various financial schemes introduced by the Prime Minister of India. Kalakriti enthralled everyone with beautiful art and craft created by the students on the occasion of Republic Day. The feeling of patriotism was heightened by the passionate self written poetry by students. It was followed by another outstanding collaboration between Vivacious, the Western Dance by arts and science students. Their dance on various patriotic tunes and folk songs wearing traditional costumes. Dr. Anju Pareek, Vice Principal was then invited to deliver the vote of thanks. The programme was greatly appreciated by everybody.

Report on Holi Celebration on 6/03/2023

Holi – The festival of Colours is not about getting rid of the waste and negative energies from our lives and homes but much more. Holi is also celebrated as a pledge day when one takes account of their shortcomings and accepts your flaws and mistakes and promises oneself not to repeat them and overcome them.

S.S.G. Pareek P.G. College has organized "Holi Celebration" on 06th March, 2023 (Monday). The event was organized by the management committee. More than 50 students along with faculty members took part in this event. Holi is the unique and colourful celebration of many myths, legends and deities associated with it. It has many interesting facts and figures which is important for the people to know. The festival of colours is very significant for our lives and body in various other ways than providing fun and the joy. It incorporated so much fun on the college campus.

This festival was celebrated as it can keep the traditions and the culture of the festival alive. The festival has given lots of enjoyment and excitement to the college authorities and students. The event started with special dance performances based on certain themes. The faculties have also participated in the cultural event. The prayer and the celebration made many of them to appreciate their strong connections with different cultures. During the celebration, both students and faculty felt a sense of togetherness and goodwill.
